

Easter Garden Craft – Easter Sunday Video Narration

You will remember that Jesus friends could not come back the next day, but early on Sunday morning they planned to return.

Very early in the morning Jesus friend Mary came back and found that the massive stone had been moved away from the entrance, so she ran to Peter and John to tell them.

Just as the sun was rising (a daffodil, in this case) they returned together and found that the grave clothes that they had buried Jesus in were still in the place that they had left Jesus, but that his body had gone.

Then they began to believe that what Jesus had said about rising again really was true.

But Mary was too upset and stayed outside, crying. She saw a man there and asked him “Sir, if you took away Jesus body, please tell me where you took it.”

Then the person who she thought was the gardener said to her “Mary!” Suddenly she realised it was Jesus and cried out with happiness “teacher”.

She was the first person to see Jesus after he had come back to life.

Sometimes we can feel as sad as Mary when people that we love die, but it is wonderful to know that Jesus proved this was not the end – he came back to life and so can we, to meet with him and our loved ones in the place that lasts for ever and where there is no unhappiness.
