

Easter Garden Good Friday Story Narration (from the video)

When Jesus died lots of strange things happened because he was not just an ordinary man – he was God’s son. The Roman army officer who had seen it all was very surprised and said “Jesus really was the Son of God!”

His friends took him from the cross and cared for his body. They were very sad.

You can see them here all clustered round him – he had been a very special friend to them and now he was dead.

A nice man called Joseph said that they could use the tomb he had recently made for himself. So the friends took Jesus there, wrapped his body in some cloth strips and laid him in the new cave. They rolled a large stone over the entrance and then, very sadly, they went away.

So that was what happened on the Friday. They could not come back the next day so they would have to wait until Sunday before they could return.
